

Accessing eBOOKS from NetLibrary

- ✓ Go to the LIBRARY HOMEPAGE - <http://www.williams.edu/library/>
- ✓ Select FINDING BOOKS & FRANCIS
- ✓ At the bottom of the screen choose either
“RESERVE BY INSTRUCTOR” or “RESERVE BY COURSE”
- ✓ Type in the INSTRUCTOR’S NAME or COURSE NAME & NUMBER
(i.e. Computer Science 338)
- ✓ Click the title
- ✓ Click “VIEW THE ELECTRONIC VERSION OF THIS BOOK”
- ✓ You are now in NetLibrary - TWO options are available:
 1. Browse this eBook online – no account required (15 minute limit)
 2. Check out and read online – account required (sign-up is free)
- ✓ Once you “open” the book, the tool bar to move around is on the left and the book is on the right. Use the tools to view the Table of Contents, mark a page, find a specific section of the book or use the dictionary to define a term.
- ✓ Is your book checked-out? Use the “Request Notification” link and you will receive an email when the book has been returned.

For questions about eBooks or general research questions, contact the Computer Science Liaison
Jodi Stacy, jstacy@williams.edu (x4503).